

Obligations of lay workers (paid and volunteer) in child-related roles

C/2.1.10

Purpose

Outlines the minimum obligations and training requirements for lay workers in child-related roles. This document is a guide to assist with the implementation of the Safe Church Policy and the Synod Wide Blue Card Policy.

Scope

Applies to all lay workers in child-related roles in congregations, faith communities, and presbyteries of the Uniting Church in Australia, Queensland Synod ('Synod'). The information in this document complements the Overseeing Safe Ministry procedure.

Mandatory Reporting

The Mandatory Reporting Process for Lay Workers and Volunteers outline the steps to take when reporting incidents of suspected abuse, grooming or neglect and includes the requirement to report all boundary violations and breaches of behaviour. Using the Template for Complaints and Allegations and the Guide for Reporting Child Safety Concerns if required will ensure the organisation is meeting their legal obligations and fulfilling their duty of care to the children and vulnerable people involved in their activities. A copy of each of these documents is available on the synod website.

Mandatory Screening

1. All lay must undergo pre-appointment screening and be appointed by the Church Council. All child-related roles also require a valid linked Blue Card or exemption card.
2. Pre-appointment screening is required for working with vulnerable people. All lay workers, are required to be deemed as suitable to apply for a Blue Card.
3. All persons with a negative notice or excluded or disqualified from requesting a Blue Card check from any state or territory of Australia are not permitted to work or volunteer with children and vulnerable people.

Obligations

Definitions

Term	Meaning
Child-related role	Under state legislation, child-related activities are those activities or programs which are provided only or mainly to children. All workers must comply with the Synod Wide Blue Card Policy, including workers that meet the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All First Aid Officers are required to hold a valid linked blue card or exemption card, in case emergency first aid treatment is required for anyone under 18 years of age. • All religious representatives, including persons studying to be a religious representative. • A worker that undertakes a child-related activity or task, on more than 7 calendar days per year. • A worker that is scheduled to undertake a child-related activity or task on a regular basis, ie is part of a roster for that volunteer task or activity. • Worship services and other activities aimed at only or mainly families, are not child-related activities, with the exception of some tasks that meet the threshold of a 'religious representative' defined

Term	Meaning
	below. You will have additional responsibilities as part of your duty of care, if your role is not a child-related role, but you start supervising a volunteer under the age of 18. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You coordinate the property maintenance. You do not usually need a blue card in this role, as this is not a child-related activity. • However, this year you have a volunteer aged 16 that has commenced volunteering, and whom you oversee. • As part of your duty of care to children and anyone vulnerable, you are now required to hold a Valid linked Blue Card whilst you remain in a role supervising a junior worker.
Threshold as a 'religious representative'	1. Under the Act, all persons considered to be a 'religious representative' must comply with the Synod Wide Blue Card Policy, and hold a valid linked Blue Card or Exemption Card. This includes a person who is training to become a religious representative. The roles of lay preacher and ministry agent both require a blue card, as under the Act these roles are defined as a 'religious representative'. 2. Once the following threshold has been reached, the person is required to comply with the Synod Wide Blue Card Policy and must hold a Blue Card or Exemption Card as a religious representative and must complete additional Lay Training specific to this role. This requirement remains the same for congregations which do not offer child-related activities. 3. The threshold - Once a volunteer performs the following ministerial functions on more than seven days in a calendar year: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preach and/or lead worship in their own congregation; or • Preach and/or lead worship in any other worship services (including weddings and funerals); or • Preside at the sacraments; or • Perform any systematic pastoral care For example: A person is not a lay preacher as defined under The Uniting Church in Australia Regulation 2.2.3. However, the person takes on one or more of the above tasks or roles (above in Section 3) on a regular or ongoing basis as there is no ministry agent in placement at their congregation. This person must comply with the additional requirements in Section 2, as they are now considered a 'religious representative'.
Worker	Section 7 of Work Health and Safety Act 2011 defines a person as a worker if they are carrying out work in any capacity for the organisation. It includes employees, employees in regulated employment, ministry agents, contractors and subcontractors, labour hire workers, work experience students and volunteers. A worker includes a person who is serving on a board or committee or is involved in running the activity, and/or directed to perform specific tasks. A person is a worker, if that person is aged over 18 years, and undertakes a paid or volunteer activity on a regular basis, including

	being scheduled on a roster to undertake a paid or volunteer activity.
Lay Worker	All workers, (see above) but specifically excludes ministry agents.
Junior workers	For more information about suitable roles and responsibilities, refer to the document ‘Sample Role Descriptions’, noting the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A child or young person aged between 12 years and 18 years may undertake a volunteer activity as a junior worker after participating in a pre-appointment screening process suitable for their age, maturity, and ability. • All workers aged between 15 years and (under) 18 years must sign and complete a Junior Statement of Personal Commitment (SOPC) and complete relevant Safe Church Training, if assessed as having the level of maturity and ability to do so. • Note that Junior volunteers or junior leaders are not expected to follow the Mandatory Reporting Process for Lay Workers, Lay Preachers, and Volunteers, and are not responsible for reporting suspected abuse, neglect or grooming, as they are children themselves. Junior Leaders must report to the activity or team leader if they notice that something is not right.
Vulnerable	The following descriptions have been provided to assist in forming a shared understanding of ‘vulnerable’. Vulnerability may occur at a specific point in time due to personal crisis, noting that some people may identify themselves as not being vulnerable. The list is not exhaustive but includes people: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In need of special care, support, or protection because of age, disability, or risk of abuse or neglect. Unable to protect themselves against significant harm or exploitation. This includes all children and young people under 18. • Belonging to a group within society that is either oppressed or more susceptible to harm. • Aged 18 or older who have the functional, mental, or physical inability to care for themselves. Some services may require a yellow card as part of employment. Currently congregations offering activities and programs for adults or children with disabilities do not require yellow cards. However, mandatory screening requirements must be met for all people working or volunteering in Church activities or programs for anyone vulnerable, including adults with disabilities.
Blue Card check	The blue card check is more than a police check. It looks for charges, convictions and any other information that may deem a person unsuitable to work with children and young people. All applicants and blue card holders are monitored daily by the Queensland Police Service with immediate notification if there is a change in a card holder’s police information.
